Fullerton, Ca. – June 3, 2011 – Randy Brown of BriteLine Wealth Management has completed the 2011 Dunham Institute curriculum, with the ability to earn Certified Financial Planner continuing education credit for participating. The event is an intensive, two-day educational forum for financial advisors to gain a deeper knowledge of investment planning techniques and strategies, and participate in discussions about the economy and today's financial markets to help their clients.

Many of the Dunham Institute faculty members are industry notables who helped shape the industry and are noted for their financial services training and education. This year's speakers included Jeffrey A. Dunham, Founder & CEO of Dunham & Associates Investment Counsel, Inc., Ron Carson, Founder of PEAK Advisor Alliance, Attorney Steven J. Oshins of Oshins & Associates, LLC, Attorneys Joseph J. Strazzeri and Stephanie S. Downer of Strazzeri Mancini, LLP, and Anthony Lombardi, Founder of Guidant Strategies Incorporated.

“In today’s economic environment, it's critically important for financial advisors to remain current on what's happening in the financial markets, as well as understand the complexities of the markets to help their clients manage their wealth” stated Salvatore M. Capizzi, Chief Sales & Marketing Officer for Dunham. “Some investors are cautious about investing. In my view, the better financial advisors continually educate themselves and develop their skills to help their clients to the best of their ability."
